Candidates for the Legislature.

GEO. P. DORRIS | D. D. BURNES

We are authorised to announce these gentlemen as Candidates for the Legislature from Platte County. They will wait upon the voters on the days named for Public Speaking.

The Anti-Missouri Senator!

It would be indecorous to let the address to the people of Missouri pass into oblivion without ample attention; we have not, therefore, like some of our contemporaries dismissed it with a summary notice. Let us put a few questions bearing on one of the topics discussed—just to prevent its being prematurely hurried to “the tomb of the Capitols!” For, in fact, there must be some stern necessity for its patriotic author exerting himself, when he put his signature to such a paper; and it may, therefore, be proper for those Candidates who are his forlorn-hope in Platte, to make answer or excuse,—they being, we confess, about as capable of replying satisfactorily to any inquiries, as the person who, for the last few years, has mis-represented Missouri in the Senate-chamber of the Union!

Did R. Atchison suppose that, until the very eve of the Missouri State Election, his constituents had emigrated to Northern Mexico; and that the precious Gadsden Treaty was to operate for the very particular advantage? Or was he merely lending a helping hand to some Southern schemers, who were his boon-companions, and who had patriotically resolved to relieve Uncle Sam’s breeches pocket from platters?

If Mr. Atchison represent this State, and promote Missouri interests, was it not requisite that he should help to collect the facts that demonstrate the superior advantages of the Central Route, and see that they were brought prominently before the Senate and the country? Did he do it? Has he not thrown all his influence and actions against that route, and has not the address imputed to him against it?

Mr. Atchison did not provide for a full investigation of the Central Route before the Senate Committee. Was he in favor of one or other, or both, of the routes that were considered?—viz., one south of 37 deg. and one north of 40 deg. Why did he appoint a Committee, the members of which he knew were opposed to the Central Route?

The financial condition and resources of the country present no impediment to the immediate construction of the Pacific Railroad—there is abundant information in reference to the various routes—what, then, constrains our Hon. Senator to say that no bill will be passed this session? What is in the way? Do tell!

Was our accomplished Senator in his place, when Mr. Johnson of Arkansas brought up the subject of the Western Border Railroad? What share had he in staving off and nullifying that proposal? Does he not know that such a road, from Lake Superior to the Gulf of Mexico, would be incalculable importance to Missouri, and form important main branches to the Pacific Railroad, from whatever point in the American Union it commences? Does he not know, that to confine the candidates to the Pacific from the centre of our frontier, and to build this Western Border Road, with other branches, would make Missouri the focus of the railroad system of the Continent and the centre of commerce, as it is geographically the central State of the Union towards which the centre of population is rapidly tending?

If he does not know these things, we must be a live specimen of Rip-Van-Winkle; and a deputation of the faithful should be immediately sent to rouse him and pull him up. There are more questions ready, whenever the above are satisfactorily disposed of.

“The ‘Platte Argus’ is at its dirty tricks again. On Saturday before last it raised another malignant falsehood respecting us. Nothing better is expected of it, by even the most contemptible of its own supporters; for every one knows that it cannot reason—and that is all the time—it equivocates and fabricates; and when it is afraid to libel, it resorts to insinuations and innuendos, and then predicated on such premises! We despise it, and disdain to chase the foul things into its native quagmire; where, in the words of Randolph, “it shines and it stinks, it sinks and it shives, like a rotten mackerel!” Our paper speaks our sentiments, expones our political creed. If any respectable and responsible man has a chance to make, let him do it openly, definitely, and without equivocation, and, if he didn’t know before, he will be very apt to find out where we are sooner than he cares about! The demo sanguine, who distils his venom on society through the columns of the above-named print, will find congenial society among California mole-drivers.

Our Mails.

Times and again have petitions to Congress been forwarded to Gen. Atchison and Mr. Oliver, praying to have the daily mail route from Kansas sent by Parkville, Hanover, or Platte City, to Fort Leavenworth. It has been represented to the department—and these gentlemen can confirm the statement about the distance—that the route indicated is some 6 or 8 miles shorter than the one over which that mail is now carried; besides, the road is excellent. So far as we have ascertained our delegates have neglected our interests—at any rate, failed to press for what our necessities so urgently demand. They know perfectly well that merely to present a petition does no good. They should importune the P. M. General until he orders the matter for consideration; and then one or other of them should chase the matter up at the contract-office. On election day these gentlemen will find that their constituents are not to be trifled with; they will remember them at the polls.

The Department, too, has been deaf to every appeal but we shall ring it in their ears until justice is done. The contractors on the daily route should do just as they please. They go round 10 or 15 miles from Kansas to Liberty, rather than come on a straight line through Parkville to Fort Leavenworth. What does it? We are citizens, and have rights. There is a rich and densely settled country hereabouts; and there is a heavy commercial business done at Parkville, Platte City, Farley, and Hanover. Indeed, the population is the wealthiest in the West. The once-a-week mail answers no purpose commercially; and our merchants and others are compelled to do business through the telegraph office, and send all their letters by the steamers.

Will the Department do its duty? They may just as well do it as late; for we are resolved to keep the water fresh in their memories, by letters, petitions, &c.

Antics and Whigs Bartering.

Several bets are laid in town here on the result of the race for Sheriff. Spratt seems to be the favorite with the Anties; and his election is to be cast for Capt. Morin; and a certain number of Anties are to vote for Spratt, in preference to Mason, the Democratic candidate. Some deserters are said to be doing all they can to consummate the barter. In the face of this arrangement, two or three fire-eating Anties are trying to throw dust in the people’s eyes, by swearing that the true Democracy are the men who are playing into the hands of the Whigs! Only a slight vibration of the record, gentlemen; and that, you know, some tricksters are used to!

Judge Leonard was to have addressed a meeting at Parkville last week, but did not fulfil the appointment on account of having agreed to make a joint canvass of the District with Mr. Lowe, whose appointment for the remainder of the campaign will be attended to by both. Our candidate, S. J. Lowe, is doing glorious service in the cause of National Democracy, and on election day he will leave his competitor not even in sight of the distance-post. The Judge however, is a strong man, and makes able speeches as his side of the question admits; of the Anties could not possibly have done better than bring him on the track.

Aye, aye—well do we recollect how he (Judge Leonard) “lamb’d” the Soits, now his friends—in the campaign of 1844. He laid them cold. Wonder if they have forgotten him since? Surely like chaste curs, they are licking the hand that whipped them.

State School Commissioner.

The present incumbent, Mr. Henry, has failed entirely in his duties, in this section of the State—at least he has done nothing for the benefit of common schools. But he may not have been selected for his aptitude to superintend or improve educational institutions; he is probably an active partisan, and as there was the snug little sum of $1500 coming out of it yearly, he may have felt like securing that. A change is recommended; and we advise all to vote for N. B. Giddings of Andrew County.

Some remarks on School matters left over till next week.

In another place to-day we give the address of Capt. W. P. Burney in the voters of Platte County. It is concise and explicit. He runs for the Legislature on the true Democratic Ticket, and will do good service for our county at Jefferson City next winter. Give him a large vote.

See Mr. Lowe’s address to the voters of the District. It was so near the time of our going to press before we received it, that we were compelled to omit some portions of it.

INDEPENDENT VOTERS Of the Fourth Congressional District.

FELLOW CITIZENS:—Having become a candidate in compliance with the call of my Democratic friends, to represent you in the Congress of the United States, and the short time now before the election, precluding the possibility of my visiting personally every portion of the district, in order to make you fully acquainted with my political views,

Therefore I am necessarily compelled to adopt this mode of making my sentiments known to you through the medium of a circular. In the first place, I beg leave to lay before you the platform of principles, adopted by my democratic friends in Mass Meeting assembled at Platte City, on the 10th of July, 1854, the principles of which I substantially endorse, which reads as follows:

[Here follow the resolutions.]

I profess to be a NATIONAL DEMOCRAT, in favor of the preservation of this great and glorious Union at all hazards, and shall industriously and undeviatingly oppose all measures that have a tendency to interrupt the harmony, peace, permanency, and respectability of this Union, firmly believing, that on the preservation of the same, depend our peace, happiness, strength and the perpetuity of the principles of this free and independent Nation, diffusing blessings that are Godlike and divine, blessings of such boundless magnitude, which no people on earth, ever before enjoyed, and let this sentiment be impressed upon our minds, and engraved as with an iron upon our hearts, that must, and shall be, the last people on earth to part with them. I shall never cease to watch with a vigilant eye, the doings of the traitors who are now in power, and are but living fiends, in human shape, who will press any measure, no matter how disastrous, it may be, provided it has a tendency to dismember this Union, and to aid their own aggrandizement.

These disablers and disorganizers are composed of three classes, the first restless and selfish, unprincipled aspirants, who are the great embodiment of inconsistency whose iniquities have almost reached the skies of national light, from the rays of whose sun they shall shrink, wane, and die. We are citizens, and have rights. There is a rich and densely settled country hereabouts; and there is a heavy commercial business done at Parkville, Platte City, Farley, and Hanover. Indeed, the population is the wealthiest in the West. The once-a-week mail answers no purpose commercially; and our merchants and others are compelled to do business through the telegraph office, and send all their letters by the steamers.

Kansas Squatter Meeting.

In accordance with previous notice, a large number of Squatters from the south side of Kaw river and Wakarusa, assembled at Coon Point Saturday last. The meeting was organized by electing JOHN HORN, Esq., President; S. J. WORL, Secretary, and S. J. LIVINGSTON, Marshal. The following resolutions were reported and adopted unanimously.

Resolved, That we constitute a claim valid, the claim shall be carried, or some name or initials on a blazed tree, or some other prominent indicator of said claim, also blazing or staking the boundary of said claim and building a foundation for a house. This shall hold good until sixty days after the treaty with the Indians is ratified, by providing or swearing that the claim was first made by himself.

Resolved, That no one shall be eligible to hold a claim unless he be the head of one year, or the head of a family.

Resolved, That in all cases we agree to be governed by the legitimate authority.

Resolved, That we further agree for mutual protection of each other, in drive off by physical force, if necessary, after sufficient notice is given, any who may attempt to deprive us of our claims made in accordance with the above provisions.

Resolved, That all difficulties and differences shall be adjusted by the association, a vote of two-thirds being final.

Resolved, That the duty of the President to call the Association together, when, in his opinion, it is necessary. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to keep accurate minutes of all meetings of the Association. The Marshal shall, whenever complaint is made that claimants’ rights are being infringed upon, summon a sufficient force to expel the intruder or intruders and see that the foregoing resolutions are enforced to the letter.

Resolved, That the Independence papers be requested to publish these proceedings.

J. HORNER, President.

S. J. WORL, Secretary.

Accompanying the resolutions we receive, is a note from one in the meeting who states a disposition on the part of some to exclude from the Association all but those who designed becoming actual fillers of the soil, object being to prevent land speculation and monopolies. The note further states, that in the opinion of the writer, a young man though not quite of age, nor the head of a family, coming with the design of filling the land will be received into the Association.

A great number of cabins have been built along Kaw or Kansas river, and the Wakarusa. Many families are there with a view of remaining and others are on their way to do the same. We are springing up back of the river, and the country back of it for many miles; Mr. Story, lives there and keeps a good Ferry. He is a liberal gentleman, and will at the proper time give great inducements for mechanics and men of capital to come in there. Towns are springing up back of it that must trade to this point. The Nemaha country is unsurpassed in fertility of soil and—along the great Nemaha, there is plenty of timber. There is timber on many of the small streams that empty into the river.

It will be my constant endeavor to extend the commercial, social, and political prosperity of our State. It is nearly the geographical center of the Union—its resources are magnificent, and the whole country is beginning to see that our industry and enterprise are equal to our advantages. I am decidedly in favor of building the Railroad to the Pacific Ocean on the Central route through the Cimarron Pass—as being the best for Missouri, as well as the whole Union. I go for the speedy construction of the Platte Country Railroad, and will co-operate with friends of the Great Road from Lake Superior to the Gulf of Mexico (sometimes called the Western Border Road) as well calculated to benefit the citizens, and develop the resources of the Platte Purchase. The Weston and St. Louis road, will also receive my support, as well as all other practical enterprises.

I need scarcely add, that my best efforts will be made for the local interests of Platte County, giving faithful attention to every matter that bears directly or indirectly on its welfare and prosperity; and, on the whole, that my action will never be factious or sectional, but always having in view the general welfare of the community.

Follow-citizens, these are my views on a few leading topics. Let me again solicit your voices, and invoke the attendance of every Democrat at the polls on the first Monday in August. Your own personal interests, and possibly the integrity of the Union demand it.

I am, most respectfully yours, S. J. LOWE.

W. P. BURNET.

To the Voters of Platte County.

FELLOW-CITIZENS:—In announcing myself a Candidate for the honor of being one of your Representatives in the next Legislature of this State, I regret my inability to visit the different Townships and personally solicit your suffrages. I take this method, however, of addressing you, and will make a few brief statements regarding my political position, &c.

I have resided in this town for six years past, and have ever been identified with the Democratic Party—standing on the Baltimore and Jefferson City Platforms, and have never yet had occasion to regret my choice of position. As a true friend of this Great Union, I shall continually stand up for the faithful administration of the laws—discouraging on every occasion the agitation of the Slavery Question, whoever may attempt to keep it up—assured that, under the provisions of the Nebraska-Kansas Compromises, the Territories will be able to attend to their own business.

One of the most important questions, to be settled by the next Legislature, is—who shall be our next United States Senator?—I would frankly say that, for talent, statesmanship, and every other requisite—THOMAS H. BENTON is my first choice; and, if you elect me I will do all in my power to secure his election. But, believing in the Democratic doctrine that “the majority rules,” it will lead me to vote for D. R. ARCTION, provided a clear majority of the Democratic Senators prefer him; or I would cheerfully sustain any other person they would unite on. I repudiate the obnoxious “soft” doctrine, entertained by some pretended followers of Jefferson and Jackson that a Whig is to be preferred to some Democrat.

It will be my constant endeavor to extend the commercial, social, and political prosperity of our State. It is nearly the geographical center of the Union—its resources are magnificent, and the whole country is beginning to see that our industry and enterprise are equal to our advantages. I am decidedly in favor of building the Railroad to the Pacific Ocean on the Central route through the Cimarron Pass—as being the best for Missouri, as well as the whole Union. Captain Giddings is well known all over the State, as a gentleman of daring talents, a man of great energy, and highly estimable in all the relations of private life. He is a master of much distinction, intimately conversant with all the intricacies of the School Law, and peculiarly fitted for the onerous duties of the position to which he aspires. He is not only well prepared and qualified by capacity and talent, but is a sound Democrat, in whom there is no “guile or shadow of turning,” and who worthy the support of the true Democracy. We trust our friends in all parts of the State will hold his name in high esteem, and give him a united support—which will secure his election by a triumphant majority.

We will hereafter give a more minute description of the country along the river—Suffice it to say for the present, the country is magnificent, and the scenery romantic and beautiful, and in our opinion unsurpassed.

CAPT. N. B. GIDDINGS.—We are glad to notice, that the Democratic press all over the State, appear to favor the selection of our esteemed fellow citizen, whose name heads this article, as a candidate for State Superintendent of Common Schools.

GREAT EXCITEMENT!!

ON passing Main-street the other day, we found assembled on the corner of Main and Sixth a large number of persons who seemed to be much excited at the information received—that SUMMERS & BRO. had received a large supply of NEEDLE-GOODS, and that they were selling the cheapest in town. And indeed, they had bought prints at 25¢, that others had paid 10¢ for. Others said that Summers & Bro. were selling the cheapest in town, and others Dry Goods at 25¢, and others said that they had paid 10¢ for them. We are glad to find that they have made a profit on Main-street, to the amount of $1000.

You wish to buy goods cheap, Come around on Main-street.

Pewsey by the doors of others.

And drop in the store of Summers & Bro.

WE sell our goods for cash, Winch is the best way to buy.

For those who sell on time, we have a few more times.

They must be paid to wait so long—

In this we see nothing wrong;

But when honest and sensible citizens allow their feelings to interfere with their regard for the law of the land, our existence as a nation is in danger.

LUMINARY.

PARKVILLE, TUESDAY, JULY 25, 1854.

Daguerrian Portraits.

Mr. E. Hathaway, of Weston, has opened rooms in Parkhall for taking Likenesses. He is an accomplished artist, takes life-like pictures, and cannot fail to satisfy the most fastidious taste. His workmanship speaks for itself; and, to those who desire to have their portraits taken, we say, embrace the present opportunity.

His charges are moderate—from $1.50 and up.

The Weather.

To say we have had a hot spell of weather, is to give a very faint idea of the truth. We are all sweltering—the thermometer indicating 104 degrees Fahr. in the shade. About five weeks ago, there was rain here; on Friday and Saturday last, there was a shower of a short but severe tantalizing rain; a little the clouds without the wished-for moisture, and earth had just to keep drying. The farmers are complaining of injury by the intense heat to the corn crop. This (Monday) afternoon, there is a brightening hope of rain before morning.

The river is rising a little.

BY TELEGRAPH.

NEW YORK, July 20.

The Tribune's special Washington correspondent states positively that commissioner Gregg, had nearly concluded a treaty, annexing the Sandwich Islands, with the approbation of the President. The only unsettled question is whether they shall come in as a territory or State. The whole subject is left a profound secret.

The Senate have now ratified all the Indian Treaties.

STATE OF MISSOURI, ss.

In the County of Platte, Probate Court, Monday, July 10, 1854.

NOW at this day comes Wilson W. Williams, administrator of the estate of William Wells, deceased, and presents his petition, verified by affidavit, praying for the sale of the real estate of said deceased, for the sum of $1,000, and for the sale of the same, accompanied by a true account of his administration, showing that the personal estate of said deceased was insufficient to pay the debts due and owing by him; it is therefore ordered that the real estate of said deceased be sold to the highest bidder in said state, by publication of this order in some newspaper published in this state for six weeks previous to the next October term of said Court—that unless the contrary be shown to the satisfaction of the court, the sale of said land on an order will be made for the real estate of said deceased, or as much thereof as will be sufficient to pay the debts of the same, together with the expense of administration.
